

Investment Strategy

The LOYS Premium Dividende fund's investment strategy is to achieve sustained growth in the value of the assets contributed by unitholders. To attain this investment objective, the fund invests in listed companies with sustainable and continuous dividend payments. The aim is to enable investors to achieve capital appreciation in as many capital market situations as possible. The fund invests exclusively in stocks emitted by issuers domiciled in Europe and aims to be fully invested at all times. The fund's investment policy also provides for the acquisition of shares in companies with a low market capitalization.

Fund Management Commentary

In February, the LOYS Premium Dividend suffered a decline in net asset value of around 2%. The last four weeks revealed some shifts on the international capital markets. While American technology stocks found themselves in more difficult waters, European dividend stocks were able to attract interest. The same applied to Chinese equities, which benefited from the emerging fantasy of 'artificial intelligence'. Meanwhile, long-term interest rates in Japan continued to rise. The local currency, the yen, appears to have broken its downward trend and has recently gained against other currencies. Towards the end of the month, the german elections created a positive mood for german equities. The fund management of LOYS Premium Dividende sold the Swedish engineering company Epiroc after a solid price increase. Further additions were made to Einhell Germany.

Important Information:

<sup>1</sup>The gross value development (BVI method) takes into account all costs incurred at fund level (for example, the management fee) with the exception of any front-end load that may be incurred (this is otherwise marked separately). Additional costs may be incurred individually at customer level (e.g. custody account fees, commissions and other fees). Model calculation (net): One investor would like to purchase units for EUR 1000. With a maximum initial sales charge of 5%, he or she must spend a one-off of EUR 50. Additionally, custody account costs may be incurred which affect the performance of the portfolio reduce the deposit costs. The custody account costs result from the price and service list of your Bank.
